

ANN MARIE MURPHY

Assistant Professor

John C. Whitehead School of Diplomacy & International Relations

Seton Hall University

murphyan@shu.edu

EDUCATION

Columbia University, New York, NY

Ph.D. in Political Science, May 2002

Dissertation: "From Conflict to Cooperation in Southeast Asia, 1961-1967: The Creation of ASEAN"

M.I.A. in International Affairs, June 1991

Lehigh University, Bethlehem, PA

B.A. in Economics, June 1984

PUBLICATIONS

"U.S.-Indonesian Relations During the Habibie Era," in Dewi Fortuna Anwar, Anwar Ibrahim, and Bridget Welsh, editors, Reflections on the Habibie Era," forthcoming.

"Changing Dynamics in U.S.-Southeast Asian Relations" in Legacies of Engagement in Ann Marie Murphy and Bridget Welsh, editors, (Singapore: Institute for Southeast Asian Studies, 2008) forthcoming.

Book Review, Is Iraq Another Vietnam? by Robert K. Brigham. New York, Public Affairs, 2006, in Political Science Quarterly, Vol. 122, No. 2, Summer 2007 .

"John 'Jack' Bresnan" with Hadi Soesastro, Bulletin of Indonesian Economic Studies, Vol. 42, No. 2, 2006.

"Indonesia and the World" in Indonesia: The Great Transition, edited by John Bresnan, (Lanham, MD: Rowman & Littlefield, 2005).

"Indonesia and Globalization: An Inescapable Force" in East Asia and Globalization, edited by Samuel Kim, (Lanham, MD: Rowman & Littlefield, 2000).

"Indonesia and Globalization" Asian Perspective, Vol. 23, No. 4, 1999.

PAPERS, PRESENTATIONS, AND INVITED TALKS

"Mapping Islamic Influence in Professional Associations in Indonesia" at the conference on Education Trends in South and Southeast Asia, organized by the National Bureau of Asian Research, McLean, VA, May 11, 2007.

"New Dynamics in U.S.-Indonesian Relations During the Habibie Era," at a public forum on Indonesia's Reformasi: Reflections on the Habibie Era," organized by the United States- Indonesia Society, Washington DC, March 27, 2007

"U.S.-Indonesian Relations During the Habibie Era" paper presented at a conference entitled Indonesia's Reformasi: Reflections on the Habibie Era" SAIS, Johns Hopkins University, Washington DC, March 26, 2007.

“Indonesia’s Foreign Policy and U.S.-Indonesian Relations” at the Congressional Briefing Session: U.S. Foreign Policy and Political Islam in Southeast Asia” organized by the National Bureau of Asian Research, Washington, DC, March 2, 2007.

“Regional Security Architecture in the Asia-Pacific and the Role of Regional Bodies in the Fight Against Terrorism” presentation at the Workshop on Implementing the UNGA Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy in the Asia-Pacific, organized by the Center on Global Counter-Terrorism Cooperation, New York, NY, January 25, 2007.

“Thai Alignment Behavior: Bandwagoning, Balancing or Bending with the Wind?” paper presented at the annual meeting of the Association of Asian Studies, San Francisco, CA, April 6-9, 2006.

“The U.S. and Southeast Asia: Changing Dynamics,” presentation at a conference entitled, Legacies of Change in Southeast Asia, Columbia University, New York, NY, November 4, 2005.

“The Proliferation of Asian Regional Institutions and U.S. Policy Toward Them,” presentation at the Vietnam-China-U.S. Trilateral Dialogue, sponsored by the Asia Foundation, Nha Trang, Vietnam, October 20-22, 2005.

“Working with Countries in Transition: Evaluating U.S. Democratization Promotion Strategies in Southeast Asia” paper commissioned by the National Defense University and U.S. Pacific Command and presented at the 26th Annual Pacific Symposium, Honolulu, Hawaii, June 8-10, 2005.

“Tsunami Politics in Indonesia: Will Donor Aid Reach Its Intended Recipients?” presentation made to the Graduate Diplomacy Council, Seton Hall University, April 20, 2005

“At the Receiving End: Indonesian Perspectives of the International Response to the Tsunami” presentation at a conference entitled Tectonics, Politics, and Ethics: the Tsunami and its Aftermath at Columbia University, New York, NY, March 4, 2005.

“Indonesian Foreign Policy-Making” lecture at the Foreign Service Institute, Washington, DC, April 27, 2004.

“Indonesia’s International Challenges,” lecture at SAIS, Johns Hopkins University, Washington DC, February 3, 2004.

“Background to Martial Law in Aceh,” at the panel “Autonomy and Independence in Indonesia: the Case of Aceh,” the Asia Society, New York, NY December 2, 2003

“Indonesian Leadership in ASEAN?” presentation at the seminar “Asian Cooperation: Challenges and Prospects in the Current International Situation,” Permanent Mission of the Republic of Indonesia to the United Nations, New York, NY, June 5, 2003.

“U.S.-Indonesian Relations in the Aftermath of September 11th.” presentation to the University Seminar on Southeast Asia, Columbia University, New York, NY, November 7, 2001.

“An Analysis of the Megawati Government in Indonesia” a panel discussion with John Bresnan and Hall Hill, East Asian Institute, Columbia University, New York, NY, September 26, 2001

“Indonesia and its ASEAN Neighbors,” paper presented at a conference on International Responses to Indonesia’s Crises, sponsored by the Transition Indonesia project, Washington DC, May 16-17, 2001.

“An American Vision for Asia?” paper presented at a conference on Rethinking Japan's Role in Asia in the Wake of the East Asian Financial Crisis, sponsored by the Global Institute for Social Progress, Tokyo, Japan, March 22, 2000.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

New Power Dynamics in Southeast Asia, Airlie House, Virginia October 19-21, 2006.

Invited participant to the Stanley Foundation's new conference initiative designed to assess new strategic trends in Southeast Asia and the implications for U.S. foreign policy.

Thailand: the Way Forward, SAIS, Johns Hopkins University, April 11-12, 2006.

Chair of the panel “Civil Society, Media and Social Movements.”

Chinese Exercise of Influence: Southeast Asian Perspectives II, Washington, DC, April 11, 2005.

Wrote and presented scenarios commissioned by the U.S. government on how the rise of China may influence the prospects for regional stability in Southeast Asia in 2010.

The Future of U.S.-Southeast Asian Relations, Bangkok, Thailand, March 14-16, 2005.

Invited participant to the final conference of the Stanley Foundation's program on Southeast Asia in the Twenty-First Century designed to analyze the prospects for U.S. foreign policy toward the region.

China's Exercise of Influence: Southeast Asian Perspectives, Washington, DC, February 14, 2005.

Invited participant to a government-sponsored conference designed to assess Southeast Asia's response to the rise of China.

Islam in Southeast Asia: What Should U.S. Policymakers Know? San Francisco, CA November 18-19, 2004

Invited participant to the fourth conference of the Stanley Foundation's program on Southeast Asia in the Twenty-First Century designed to discuss the role of Islam in Southeast Asian social and political life and the implications for U.S. foreign policy toward the region.

Freedom House, New York, NY Fall 2004

Wrote chapters on Indonesia, Thailand, and East Timor for Freedom in the World 2005, Free House's annual survey of global civil liberties and political rights. Participated in ratings meetings for the Asia-Pacific countries.

Council on Foreign Relations, New York, NY October 20, 2004

Briefed Lynn Pascoe, the new U.S. Ambassador to Indonesia, in a small group organized by the Council.

Regionalism in Southeast Asia and U.S. Policy, Stanford University, CA September 23-24, 2004.

Invited participant to the third conference of the Stanley Foundation's program on Southeast Asia in the Twenty-First Century designed to discuss the role of regionalism in Southeast Asia and its implications for U.S. foreign policy toward the region

Indonesia Futures: Will Democracy Endure? Washington D.C., August 2-3, 2004

Participated in a government-sponsored conference designed to create scenarios for Indonesian democracy in 2014 and explore their implications for U.S. policy.

Carter Center Election Monitor, Jakarta and Batam, Indonesia, July 1-9, 2004

Observed Indonesia's first direct presidential election in Batam, Indonesia, as a member of the Carter Center delegation.

Asian Political Crisis Simulation, MIT Center for International Studies, Cambridge, MA, May 21-23, 2004
Played the role of ASEAN Secretary-General in a crisis simulation exercise designed to examine possibilities for East Asian regional integration in the early 21st Century.

Democracy and Elections in Southeast Asia, SAIS, John Hopkins University, May 12, 2004
Chaired a conference panel entitled, "Democracy and Development Ahead."

U.S Human Rights Policy in Southeast Asia, Carnegie Council, New York, NY, May 10-11, 2004
An invited participant to the second conference of the Stanley Foundation's program on Southeast Asia in the Twenty-First Century designed to discuss emerging human rights issues in Southeast Asia and make policy recommendations toward them.

Security Relations with Southeast Asia: A Dual Challenge, Washington, D.C., March 11-12, 2004
An invited participant to the first conference of the Stanley Foundation's program on Southeast Asia in the Twenty-First Century designed to discuss emerging security issues in Southeast Asia and make policy recommendations toward them.

U.S.-Vietnam Bilateral Study Tour, Hanoi, Ho Chi Minh City, and Dalat, Vietnam, October 19-26, 2003.
Participated in a series of interviews with Vietnamese officials and attended the conference, "Dialogue on U.S.-Vietnamese Relations: International Factors," organized by the Asia Foundation and the Vietnamese Institute for International Relations.

Future U.S. Alliance Dynamics and Strategic Postures, Washington D.C., May 19-20, 2003
Participated in a government-sponsored conference designed to explore possible reactions to changing American force deployments in the Asia-Pacific region.

Council on Foreign Relations Indonesia Commission: Peace and Progress in Papua, 2002-2003
Member of a taskforce that explored how international stakeholders can help resolve conflicts between the Indonesian government and the Papuan people. The Council on Foreign Relations published the Commission's research report in Spring 2003.

Columbia University, The Transition Indonesia Project, New York, NY, 1999-2002
The Transition Indonesia Project is a joint American-Japanese-Australian study group that analyzes unfolding Indonesian political and economic events and suggests ways that the governments of these three countries can help promote Indonesia's economic recovery and transition to democracy. Wrote grant proposals that secured more than $500,000 in funding and subsequently prepared reports to the funding agency. Organized, managed, and participated in five major conferences and three research trips to Indonesia. Supervised professional staff and student interns. Drafted briefing reports and oversaw their production and distribution. Drafted a book outline, recruited authors, and organized book planning sessions for a final volume.

RESEARCH AFFILIATIONS

Research Scholar, Weatherhead East Asian Institute, Columbia University, 1998-present
Associate Fellow, The Asia Society, New York, NY

Visiting Scholar, Centre for Strategic and International Studies, Jakarta, Indonesia, 1996

Visiting Researcher, Institute of Security & International Studies, Bangkok, Thailand, 1995 and 1993

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Whitehead School of Diplomacy and International Relations, Seton Hall University, South Orange, NJ
Assistant Professor, 2004-present

Currently teaching courses on international relations at the both the undergraduate and graduate level.
Designed a new concentration in foreign policy analysis for the school's M.A. program.

School of International and Public Affairs, Columbia University, New York, NY

Lecturer, 1998-2003

Taught the courses "Southeast Asian Politics," and "Southeast Asia in the International System."

ACADEMIC SERVICE

Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate, Seton Hall University, June 2007-present.

Faculty Senate, Representative of the Whitehead School of Diplomacy, June 2006-present.

Chair, Calendar Committee, Seton Hall University, September 2007-present.

Chair, Fellowship Committee, Whitehead School of Diplomacy, September 2006-present

Co-Chair, University Seminar on Southeast Asia in World Affairs, Columbia University, June 2003-present

Southeast Asia Post-Doctoral Fellowship Selection Committee, Weatherhead East Asian Institute, Columbia University, June 2004-present

Faculty Reviewer, Whitehead Journal of Diplomacy and International Relations, October 2004-present.

Calendar Committee, Seton Hall University, September 2004-present.

Faculty Search Committee, International Relations/Methodology Position, Whitehead School of Diplomacy, September 2006-March 2007.

Faculty Search Committee, International Organization Committee, Whitehead School of Diplomacy, September 2005-March 2006

Faculty Senate, Alternate Representative of the Whitehead School of Diplomacy, June 2005-June 2006

Library Committee, Seton Hall University, September 2005-September 2007.

Commencement Marshall, Seton Hall University, May 2005.

Search Committee, Faculty Associate Position, Whitehead School of Diplomacy, January-May 2005.

M.A. Thesis Advisor, Spring 2005.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Asian Survey, External Reviewer, 2004-present

Serve as an external reviewer for articles submitted to one of the leading journals on Asian affairs.

Rowman & Littlefield Publishers, book reviewer May 2005-present

HONORS AND GRANTS

The Robert H. Manley Distinguished Mentorship Award, by the Graduate Diplomacy Council, Seton Hall University, 2005-2006.

University Research Council Summer Research Grant, Seton Hall University, 2005

Pacific Basin Studies Fellowship, Columbia University, 1997-1998, 1991-1992

Presidential and Pacific Basin Studies Fellowships, Columbia University, 1996-1997, 1994-1995

Foreign Language Area Studies Fellowship, Indonesian, Cornell University, 1995-1996

Consortium for the Advanced Study of Thai Fellowship, funded by the Fullbright-Hays Program, 1995

Sasakawa Peace Foundation Research Grant, 1995

Weatherhead Fellowship, Columbia University, 1994

International Predissertation Fellowship, Social Science Research Council, 1993

Dean's Fellowship, Columbia University, 1990-1991

Fairchild Martindale Fellowship, Lehigh University, 1983-1984

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

The Council on Security and Cooperation in the Asia Pacific

The International Studies Association

The Association of Asian Studies

The American Political Science Association

The Asia Society

The U.S.-Indonesia Society

REFERENCES

Available Upon Request